

D.C. Tax Revision Commission

EXPERT BRIEFING: DC Tax Implications of the Post-COVID Economy

Date/time: Tuesday, November 1, 6:30-8:30 pm

In-person/hybrid – One Judiciary Square and via WebEx or youtube

Background: The Commission is explicitly charged with identifying ways for the tax code to support a strong DC economy. This briefing will consider the District's pathways to strong, sustainable, and equitable growth, how revenues will be affected, and how changes to the tax code may help us get there.

Speakers:

- Dr. Santiago Pinto, Senior Economist and Policy Advisor in the Research Department, Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond
- Dr. Tracy Hadden Loh, Fellow, Brookings Institution
- Dr. Howard Chernick, Professor Emeritus of Economics at Hunter College and the Graduate Center of the City University of New York
